The 15 Table Auction Format

- each seller's lot is limited to 15 items, and will be divided onto 15 tables; all goods on table 1 will be auctioned in random order before proceeding to table 2, then to table 3, and so on to table 15; this keeps things fair for all
- auctioning will start at 10 am sharp!

Auction Seller's Notes

- registration starts at 8am, closes at 10am
- we will supply pre-printed stickers to identify each of your items
- please respect our 60 item per household limit ... 4 full lots of 15 items each (max)
- each lot must be full before an additional lot number is assigned
- bag fish properly
 - no ziplock bags /baggies, no twist ties
 - one part water to four parts air
- label all items - how many fry?
 - male/female/pair?
 - working/for parts?
- display your minimum bid (if any) on the item
- Our KWAS commission is only 30% (and is the minimum mandated by city bylaw)
- you may apply your seller's share against purchases you make at the auction, or we will pay by cheque within one week of the event
- minimum bids will be honoured;
items will be offered only once and unsold items must be picked up before day's end
- unclaimed items become the property of KWAS
